

OCTOBER 26th CHAPTER MEETING

Leveraging Subconsultants in Business Development

Katherine Robinette, CPSM, is a senior marketing coordinator at OBEC Consulting Engineers and partner with Go! Strategies, LLC. Her work for multidiscipline engineering firms has spanned nearly two decades by combining her theatrical and public advocacy background to creatively win projects. Katherine is known for her independent research on marketing best practices for our industry. She believes in the value of marketing, and elevates our profession through teaching CPSM classes, providing internal training for her company, and speaking at regional and national conferences.
